To Whom It May Concern:

Anthony Pellicano has been a friend of mine for more than 20 years. In my mind, he is the most upstanding, honest, and integrity-filled person I know. He has given of himself tirelessly anytime he has been asked. Recently, my daughter went through a difficult divorce. Anthony was there as a guiding light and treated her as if she were his own. He has given of himself tirelessly to artists that I have represented, when they were in need. These artists include Michael Jackson and Madonna.

In conclusion, I would ask the court to, at the very least, grant him bail and release him from jail - - where he does not belong.

Respectfully yours,

Frederick DeMann
